

Gigi's World — Beginner Language Lessons

Spanish • French • Mandarin | REVIEW DRAFT for native speakers — not final

Each lesson is planned as a short (~60-second) video plus printables. Pronunciation guides use simple English sounds and are approximate; native-speaker review and recorded audio are needed before any video is made. No video has been generated.

Reviewer checklist: (1) translations correct and child-friendly, (2) pronunciation guide reasonable, (3) script sounds natural for ages 2–6, (4) write corrections in the “Reviewer notes” column.

¡Hola! Let's Learn Spanish with Gigi!

Spanish beginner lesson • ages 2–6 • ~60 seconds

Latin American Spanish pronunciation shown (z, and c before e/i, sound like "s"). Reviewer: confirm the preferred regional variety.

#	Gigi says	Action / note
1	Oh! You came! ¡Hola, amigos! I'm Gigi!	Waves at the yellow door.
2	Hola means hello! Can you say hola?	Pause 2 seconds for the child.
3	Buenos días means good morning!	Stretches arms like the sun.
4	Let's count to five! Uno, dos, tres, cuatro, cinco!	Fingers up. The existing Spanish counting video already covers 1–5.
5	Rojo is red! Let's look closer — can you find something rojo?	Points to a red apple.
6	Gracias means thank you. Gracias, friends!	Hand on heart.
7	Adiós means goodbye! You learned something new today. That makes today a good day.	Waves; walks to the yellow door.

6. Song idea

“Hola, Hola” (original lyrics; melody still to be written): Hola, hola, ¿cómo estás? / Wave your hand and say hola! / Uno, dos, tres, clap with me / Adiós, adiós, see you soon!

7. Movement activity

Say each number while jumping once; say each color while touching something that color in the room.

8. Parent participation

Watch together, pause at each question, repeat words slowly, and use one new word at home each day — at breakfast, bath time or bedtime.

Bonjour! Let's Learn French with Gigi!

French beginner lesson • ages 2–6 • ~60 seconds

Standard French. Nasal vowels (un, maman, chien) are hard to show in English spelling — please confirm with recorded audio.
